ADMISSIONS GUIDE

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Getting your nursing degree from SPC's Evelyn W. Jerger Nursing Program means you've made a solid career choice. With 2.7 million jobs, registered nursing makes up the largest health care field in the United States. With many nurses retiring and an aging population, Florida could face a critical nursing shortage in the coming years. We reserve six seats for paramedics to enter the program.

Program Information

Clinical facilities may prohibit students who do not have an assigned social security number from participating in clinical experiences which are a mandatory component of the curriculum. If other clinical placement options are not available, students would need to withdraw from the respective semester and would not be able to progress in the nursing program; applicants must take these factors into consideration prior to pursuing admission to the nursing program.

IMPORTANT: Students may be assigned to clinical facilities in Pinellas, Hillsborough, or Pasco counties and must have reliable transportation. Scheduled days for all Nursing courses vary as indicated below:

OPTION FOR PARAMEDIC FLEX SCHEDULING

In order to be eligible for Flex Scheduling, the student must work for the Fire Department, and have a 24 hours on and 48 hours off regular shift. Paramedics from any other setting are ineligible for the flex scheduling option at SPC.

- The student must be able to attend at least 2/3 of all scheduled instructional time, which includes on-campus lab, simulation and clinical (including on-campus clinical).
- No other absences are allowed.
- Clinical rotations are randomly assigned and may be at any of our partner facilities in Pinellas, Pasco, or Hillsborough counties. Clinical is usually a 10-hour day, one day per week.
- On clinical days, the student must be available from 6am to 5:30pm. Many of our partner facilities require students to be present for morning report, which takes place between 6 and 6:30am.
- Paramedics must ensure that they are not scheduled to work the night before their clinical day because it is essential that students are alert and well rested in order to deliver safe, effective care to patients.
- Students are expected to arrive to clinical, simulation and lab on time.

While the flex scheduling option allows the student to miss 1/3 (total) of instructional time including lab activities, clinical (including on-campus clinical) and simulation time, the 24/48 shift rotation does not fit in perfectly with the busy academic schedule of the ASN program.

- The student will need to negotiate approximately five days off per semester with the Fire Dept. Chief, or swap shifts with coworkers in order to meet the requirement to attend 2/3 of scheduled instructional time. Students must be aware of this before applying for the program.
- The student must supply their Fire Department work schedule to course faculty and level academic chairs on or before the first day of each new semester.
- The schedule must be validated by the student's supervisor at the Fire Department with contact information and signature.
- The validated schedule MUST be provided on or before the first day of class in order to be granted a flex schedule.
- If a validated work schedule is not submitted on or before the first day of class, the student will not be eligible to follow a flex schedule.
- If there is any change during the semester, the student is required to inform the faculty immediately and provide a new, validated work schedule.
- The College of Nursing reserves the right to revoke the flex schedule if the student is placed on academic probation.

Note: Paramedic-RN Track - follow traditional morning or afternoon tracks, other tracks outlined in the Nursing Schedules by Track page are not available for Paramedic-RN students.
