Associate in Science Degree in Nursing (ASN) options at SPC

(Beginning Fall 2026)

SPC offers several track options for completing the ASN degree so you can choose the one that best fits your lifestyle.

Traditional ASN — Theory/Sim Schedule Tracks:

Please Note: NUR 1110C – Health Concepts I includes Theory, Simulation and Clinical, each are on-campus course sections and held as noted per schedule track options below

For all tracks (Traditional and LPN-RN Transitional) - Final practicum course (NUR2940C): The schedule of days/shifts to complete the required hours will vary based on preceptor schedule. (Generally, 3 shifts/wk)

1. Morning Track with Weekday Clinicals

- Four consecutive semesters (17 months)
- Theory is in the morning (usually 8am-1pm) - 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the morning (usually 7am-1pm) - 1 day every other week
- Clinicals are 1 day per week (M-F, varies) approx. 6am-5pm.
- Fall and Spring admission

2. Afternoon Track with Weekday Clinicals

- Four consecutive semesters (17 months)
- Theory is in the afternoon (usually 1pm-6pm) - 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the afternoon (usually 12:30pm to 6:30pm) – I day every other week
- Clinicals are 1 day per week (M-F, varies) from approx. 6am – 5pm
- Fall and Spring admission

3. Summer Afternoon Track – Clinical Days Vary - Weekday/Weekend

- Five consecutive semesters (17 months) – practicum completed during 1st 8-weeks of 5th term
- Theory is in the afternoon (usually 1pm-6pm) – 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the afternoon (usually 12:30pm-6:30pm) – 1 day per week
- Online simulations – 1 day per week, various weeks
- On-Campus Clinicals weeks 1-3 - 2 days per week (M-Sa, varies) from approx. 7am – 1pm
- Clinicals weeks 4-9 – 1 day per week (M-Sa, varies) from approx. 6:30am-2:30pm
- Summer admission

4. Evening/Weekend Track with Weekend Clinicals (Not Available for Paramedics)

- Six consecutive semesters (2 years)
- Theory is in the evening (usually 5pm-9pm) – 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the evening (usually 5pm-8pm) – 1 day per week
- Clinicals are 1 day per week on Saturdays from approx. 6am - 5pm
- Fall and Spring admission

5. Paramedic-RN Track

- Follow traditional morning/afternoon tracks, evening/weekend track is not available for Paramedic-RN students.

LPN-RN Transitional — Theory/Sim Schedule Tracks:

Please Note: NUR 1003C – LPN Transition Health Concepts includes Theory, Simulation and Clinical; each are on-campus course sections and held as noted per schedule option below:

This is for students who have completed their LPN at an accredited school and hold a valid LPN license in the State of Florida.

6. Afternoon (Day) Track with Weekday Clinicals

- Three semesters with summer off (Fall, Spring, Fall)
- Theory is in the afternoon (usually 1pm-6pm) - 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the afternoon (usually 12:30pm – 6:30pm) - 1 day every other week
- Clinicals are 1 day per week (M-F, varies) from approx. 6am - 5pm
- Fall admission only.

7. Evening Track with Weekend Clinicals

- Three semesters with summer off (Spring, Fall, Spring)
- Theory is in the evening (usually 5pm - 9pm) - 1 day per week + online coursework
- Simulation is in the evening (usually 5pm - 8pm) - 1 day every week
- Clinicals are 1 day per week on Saturdays from approx. 6am - 5pm
- Spring admission only